

Project Manager - Sydney

UnitingCare NSW.ACT is the Board of the NSW and ACT Synod of the Uniting Church responsible for the work of community services, chaplaincy and social justice advocacy. All our work is inspired and guided by the principles of justice and compassion.

Services include aged care and disability programs, services for vulnerable families, children and young people and quality early childhood education and care. UnitingCare NSW.ACT also manages the Medically Supervised Injecting Centre.

The IT Services Centre has been established recently to provide a single shared IT service across UnitingCare NSW.ACT. The creation of a UnitingCare IT Services Centre will provide the underlying platform to support our Strategic Directions and help build the systems and processes we need to better meet present and future needs. With robust systems and up-to-date technology, our focus on care will be intensified, enhanced and continually improved through the delivery of infrastructure, application, end user computing and program management services.

The Project Manager, will play an integral part in the Program Management Office by leading a high profile project in the area of Community Care Systems.

Key attributes of the role include:

- Five years plus project management experience.
- Demonstrated understanding of care systems.
- Proven experience in managing complex organisational change.
- Provide experience in managing complex system implementations, preferably across significant, multi-site service organisations.
- Experience in managing projects in an environment of distributed authority and autonomy.
- Strong verbal and written communication skills with the capacity to communicate effectively at all levels and with technical and user representatives.

Successful applicants will be rewarded with an exceptional opportunity to significantly impact the growth of the organisation and be rewarded. It is a unique opportunity to work in a friendly, dynamic and social environment.

UnitingCare NSW.ACT is an EEO Employer. Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people are encouraged to apply.
